Durgarden Main Attractions

Grona Lund Amusement Park <https://www.gronalund.com/en>

Whether you decide to dine in one of the restaurants, enjoy a show at the children's theatre, compete in the pentathlon, experience one of the many live concerts or ride one of the 31 nerve-racking rides – a day at Gröna Lund is always filled with joy and laughter.

Skansen <https://skansen.se/en/>

Founded in 1891, Skansen is the world's first open-air museum. Visitors to Skansen meet a historical Sweden reflected both in the buildings and their surroundings. Some 150 historically interesting houses and farmsteads have been moved to Skansen over the years from all over Sweden.

Skansen is also home to 75 different species and breeds of Scandinavian domestic and wild animals such as wolves, lynx, elks and brown bears. The year's festivals are always celebrated at Skansen in a traditional manner, including Sweden's national day, Midsummer, Lucia and Christmas. Skansen is open every day all year round. In the houses and farmsteads there are historical interpreters in period dress. They explain to visitors how people lived in earlier times and they demonstrate traditional activities such as spinning, weaving, knitting and other crafts. You can travel back in time and meet people from the past.

Abba Museum <https://abbathemuseum.com/en/>

ABBA The Museum is more than an ordinary museum. Naturally, the members' costumes, gold records, original items, memorabilia, and much, much more can be found there. At this museum you are an important part of the experience as you take on the role of the 5th ABBA member. Find out what you would look like in their legendary stage costumes while entering the stage together with the band, or sing at the Polar Studio.

Viking Museum <https://thevikingmuseum.com/en/>

At the Viking Museum you will meet the strong and brave Vikings as we know them from the sagas, but also, the real humans behind the hardcore myth. You will get acquainted with Leifur, a reconstructed Viking age man with exciting stories to tell. Here you'll also get up close with live Vikings, smell tar, hear clinking swords, the raven's hungry cry and feel the weight of the axe in your hand. Through historical facts, personal stories and exciting scenery, myth and truth come together, and the Viking age comes alive.

Go on a dramatic journey through Viking age Europe. The adventure begins at Frösala farm where Harald, the master, has lost the family's fortune by feasting and drinking. Ragnfrid, his noble wife, tells him to go and be a Viking to save both the farm and their glory. If he doesn't succeed, they might have to marry off Sigrid, their only daughter.

Nordic Museum (Nordiska) <https://www.nordiskamuseet.se/en>

Nordiska museet (The Nordic Museum) hosts exhibitions in fashion, folk art, the Sami people, jewellery, Swedish interiors and traditions. The museum mirrors the shape of a Nordic renaissance castle, and visiting the building itself is a memorable experience. Use our free audio guide and explore the museum and exhibitions at your own pace.

Vasa Museum <https://www.vasamuseet.se/en/about-the-vasa-museum>

The Vasa Museum houses Vasa, the only preserved 17th century ship in the world. She capsized and sank in Stockholm in 1628. After 333 years on the seabed, the warship was salvaged in 1961. 98% original and richly adorned with hundreds of wooden sculptures, she is a unique attraction and art treasure. The purpose-built museum also contains eleven exhibitions about Vasa and her time. Outside is the museum's 17th century garden.
